BOYCOTT SUIT FOR ROSE SWEARS $80,000 IS LOST

Famous Case Decided After Running Ten Years.

HARTFORD, Conn., Sct. 12.-A ver dict awarding D. E. Loewe & Co., hat manufacturers of Danbury, $80,000 dam-ages against the Hatters' Union of the turned by the jury in the famous hat-ters' boycott case here late yesterday.

Immediately after the verdict was ead, Federal Judge James L. Martin, in compliance with the anti-conspiracy clause of the Sherman anti-trust law. trebled the amount of award to $240,000 which, with costs, makes the largest amount ever granted by a jury in this State. Judge Martin also gave the attorneys for the defense until January 2, 1912, in which to file their appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

Rosenthal's place was being run wide open. He told me that he would have to tell Rosenthal that he would have to open. He told me that he would have to do something and directed me to the United States Supreme Court. The award granted was the full sum asked by the Loewe Company, and considerable surprise was manifested by those interested when the jury made its report. It was later learned that during the four hours which the jury deliberated, the question of whether award should be made or not never entered, the time being spent in deciding how much.

The suit has been in the courts for the last ten years, and of the original 200 defendants about fifty are dead. The homes and banks accounts of the remainder are under attachment. The conspiracy against the Loewe firm, for which the damages were granted, was particularly successful on the Pacific coast, where a number of dealers were frightened cut of doing business with the Loewe Company by threats of being placed on the hatters' unfair list.

Secretary Morrison

Says Appeal Will

Follow the Verdict

President Samuel Gompers, of the Them Becker in the loss of the evidence the regular way.

"He told me that he would have to stand for a raid. "I stalled him off on the raid, telling in that it would hurt business. But one day when I met Becker in the Union Square Hotel, he toid me that he would have to stand for a raid.

"I stalled him off on the raid, telling in that it would hurt business. But to met a raid the place, I begged and pleaded with him to abandon the idea. I pointed out all the danger, especially as he told me that he was going to just raid the place without trying to get the loud me that he was going to just raid the place without trying to get the loud me that he was going to just raid the place without trying to get the loud me that he was going to just raid the place without raying to get the loud me that he was going to just raid the place without raying to get the loud me that he was going to just raid the place without raying to get the loud me that he was going to just raid the place without raying to get the loud me that he was going to just raid the p The award granted was the full sum asked by the Loewe Company, and considerable surprise was manifested by those interested when the jury made its report. It was later learned that during the four hours which the jury deliberated, the question of whether award should be made or not nover entered, the time being spent in deciding how much.

The suit has been in the courts for the last ten years, and of the original 200 defendants about fifty are dead. The homes and banks accounts of the remainder are under attachment. The conspiracy against the Loewe firm, for which the damages were granted, was particularly successful on the Pacific coast, where a number of dealers were frightened out of doing business with the Loewe Company by threats of being placed on the hatters' unfair list.

Secretary Morrison

President Samuel Gompers, of the Federation of Labor, was reported to be in New York fulfilling business engagements and could not be reached in the matter of the recent award of $80,000 and damages for D. R. Loewe & Co., of Danbury, against members of the United Hatters' Union of North America.

Secretary Frank Morrison, of the federation, said that pursuant to a decision reached previous to the ren-dering of the verdict the case would be appealed. Further than this, he said, he could say nothing at the pres-

Witness Declares Police Lieutenant Forced Gambler's Slaying.

(Continued from First Page.) When I told this to Becker he got angry, and said that he had sized Rosenthal up for that kind of an in-dividual. He told me to go and get the money from Rosenthal.

Place Raided at Once.

"When I went to the place in Fortyfifth street, Rosenthal told me he thought Becker must be crazy to ask that money from a place that had just opened up. Shortly afterward Becker told me that complaints were pouring in on Police Commissioner Waldo that Threatened Becker.

"Then Becker, because of the loss that Rosenthal was put to as the rethat Rosenthal was put to as the result of the raid, ordered his lawyer to cancel the mortgage, and thought that this ended the matter. But they put a policeman on duty in Rosenthal's house, and he was kept there despite Rosenthal's protests.

"Rosenthal and Becker held several meetings, but they could not fix the matter up, and the policeman stayed in the house. Rosenthal was unable to do business, and he was growing desperate. He finally threatened Becker with the district attorney. He told him he would tell all he knew. I went to Becker, and told him that we would be in bad if Rosenthal squealed, but partnership story, but that he had laughed it ""

"Tell the jury what he said that would indicate his feeling toward Rosenthal.
"He said: This fellow is setting dangerous and must be stopped."
"What did he say about the newspapers?"
"Becker told me that Rosenthal had been to the World and had given them an affidavit saying that they were partners. He said that when the commissioner asked him about this he told him that he intended suing Rosenthal for libel.
"Hecker then said to me: 'Jack, they "Becker then said to me: 'Jack, they

Of Skin and Hair

Promoted by

he 'old me to keep quiet, that he had every angle covered."

Moss then asked Rose when he next saw Becker.

'A few days later he came to my house, and said that Rosenthal had been phoings him daily demanding that he take the policeman out of the gambling house. He said that Rosenthal had also been telling about town that he and Becker were partners.

"What less did Becker say?"

"What else did backer say?"

"Now, he is trying to get the sar of the district attorney. We must stop him. I tell you, Jack, B want to have a private talk with you. You just did a favor-for Jack Zellg. Now I want you to send the word to Zellg hat I had been killed by Cave-in

There is only one thing to do:

"There is a fellow I would like to have croaked. Why, Jack, I rode in a taxleab with him today and he panned members of you. I could croak him myself, but he has got, to be croaked, that is all about it.

"I told Becker that I thought there was the would have to be killed by Cave-in

At Soldiers

There is a fellow I would like to have croaked. Why, Jack, I rode in a taxleab with him today and he panned members of your family. There's gratitude for your family. There's gratitude for you. I could croak him myself, but he has got, to be croaked, that is all about it.

Pre-eminently Situated

This magnificent corner home with four big bedrooms, equipped with every comfort—built with the finest materials money can buy—

YOU CAN OWN FOR $500 Cash and $32.50 Per Month

onstruction.
Two-part laundry tubs.
Economical guaranteed furnace, with hotvater attachment.
Oas hot-water heater for summer use.
Tile bath, with first-class plumbing.
Index nickel spigots in bath and kitchen.
Porcelain wink with tiled spiash.
Elegant ventilated gas range, with porceain drip pan.
Sensible kitchen dresser, with drawers and class doors.

indow. Kitchen walls covered with varnished tile. Hardwood double cak flooring. All window sills of stone. Expensive gas fixtures, with electric at-

The actual selling price of this home, considering its general high standard finish; its advantages resulting from having big lawns; its unusual floor space and general comfortable plan; is, at the lowest calculation, $500 less than properties of a similar character have brought in this neighborhood. A comparison will substantiate that statement. Corner of 10th and I Sts. N.E.

Don't put off an inspection

Note These Features Then See for Yourself

Open Until 8:30 P. M.

Cuticura Soap Shannon & Luchs

713 14th Street N. W.

Look For Our Green and White Sign.

At Soldiers' Home

John E. Simms, twenty-eight years old, of 2805 Fourth street northeast, met instant death this morning when a sand bank on which he was working at the Soldiers' Home grounds caved in. George Krehs, of 1685 Kramer street northeast, also was caught by the falling sand. He was badly hurt. Both were taken to the Soldiers' Home Hospital, where the doctors said Simms had been killed instantly. Krebs' injuries were dressed, and he left the hospital.

Man and Wife Dead In Suicide Pact

SOMERSET, Pa., Oct. 12.-Edward Tucker, aged thirty-five, formerly a telegraph operator in the United States navy, and his wife, Eva, aged twentysix, were found dead with their throats cut in their home in Garrett early to-day, as the result, it is believed, of a suicide pact.

It is thought that he cut his wife's throat and then ended his own life.

FATHER FEALY'S DENIAL

The publicity given a letter written by Rev. Ignatius Fealy, of St. Joseph's Church, and published in the columns of The Washington Times, the Washington Herald, and Washington Post, on Sunday, October 6th, 1912, and otherwise widely distributed, was obviously of such a character as to create an erroneous impression.

Mr. O'Hearn, whose name was mentioned in the letter, has the personal assurance of Father Fealy that the letter was not

"Voluntarily Sent"

As the advertisements in which the letter is featured, state, but was given "at the request" of the recipient, as confirmed by the following statement:

> St. Joseph's Rectory, 813 Second Street Northeast, Washington, D. C.

"At the request of Mr. Brylawski, I made statement recently in reference to 'Sweet Innisfallen,' now at the Garden Theater.

"What I did say has been excessively amplified. "I made no comment whatever upon the artistic or moral value of the act.

(Signed) October 10th, 1912.

"IGNATIUS FEALY,"

图:国际制度计算计算计算计算计算计算 THE PARTY OF

GEO. A. FULLER CO., BUILDERS.

A. B. SEE ELECTRIC ELEVATORS.

Cor. Penna. Ave., 18th and H Sts.

Open for Guests Today

-Washington's Newest and Best Hotel —Typifying the Last Word in Hotel Excellence

The structure, equipment, and furnishings from basement to roof are high class in every particular and embody features not to be found in any other Washington hotel.

Accommodations for all classes of patrons-permanent and transient guests.

The Restaurant, Palm Court, and American Indian Grill Room will be features.

A Dinner de Luxe will be served this evening from 7 to 10 o'clock.

The following are some of the well-known firms that have helped to make this hotel (both exterior and interior) a structure of beauty and harmony:

SOUVENIRS AND FAVORS Supplied by

INTERNATIONAL SOUVENIR CO.

204-206 West 23d Street, New York ALSO BERLIN AND PARIS,

Who are purveyors to the leading hotels and restaurants throughout the country. Eugene J. E. van Maasdyk, Sole Proprietor.

BAUSCHER BROS. Furnished the HOTEL POWHATAN with China, Table Linen, Art Majolica Factories in Germany and France.

Central Office, NEW YORK, 52 East 21st St. Leading Hotels, Restaurants, Clubs, Steamship Companies, Railway Dining Cars All Over the World Are Our Customers.

FACE BRICK

The Powhatan is faced with one of the celebrated gray shades of front brick manufactured by the Washington Branch of the HYDRAULIC PRESS BRICK COMPANY. Selected by Owners and Architects because they are STAN-DARD in quality, beauty, and permanency.

This company is largest manufacturers of high-grade facing brick in the country; serving thousands of prominent operations in Hydraulic Press Brick Co., Colorado Bldg., Washington, D.C.

The Silver. Glassware and Kitchen Furnishings -in the new HOTEL POWHATAN were furnished by us. We make a specialty of supplying Hotels, Clubs, Colleges, Hospitals, Railroads, Steamboats, etc., etc.,

We are the LARGEST SUPPLY HOUSE for this class of goods in the South. Correspondence invited.

DULIN & MARTIN CO.

Pottery, Porcelain, China, Glass, Silverware, and Kitchen Supplies.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

The Sanitary Towel Service

In the Hotel Powhatan Was Installed by the Individual Towel and Cabinet Service Co.

Suite 525 Cambridge Bldg. 60 N. Fifth Ave Chicago

Uneeda Antiseptic Toothpick Co.

293 Hooper Street, Brooklyn, N. Y. Manufacturers of the only genulr

Antiseptic Quill Toothpicks and Sippers. Put up in scaled tubes, with your advertisement printed on the tube, are now served everywhere in Bret-class hotels. "They are clean, neat, and can't be beat."
Write for prices and samples.

A Booklet Worth While

A very beautiful and elaborate booklet describing the attractions of Hotel Powhatan, is being prepared by the NORMAN PIERCE CO., of New York and Chicago, the foremost producers of Hotel and Resort Booklets in the country.

The Booklet will contain photographs taken in and about Washington, beautifully embellished with full color drawings depicting scenes of the George and Martha Washington period that are historically correct.

Issued by the NORMAN PIERCE CO.

The Wall Papers

Used in the Hotel Powhatan M. H. Birge &

Sons Co. Buffalo, N. Y. And were supplied through

W. B. Moses & Sons

The Grand Pipe Organ

Especially designed with orchestral stops-which makes possible the rendition of elaborate overtures and musical programs, is to be furnished by

M. P. MOLLER Hagerstown, Md.

The Solid Mahogany Furniture in COLONIAL DESIGN

With which the HOTEL POWHATAN is furnished, including all bedrooms throughout, was especially designed and built for the HOTEL POWHATAN and was supplied by

GIMBEL BROS., of Philadelphia

The Refrigerating Plant

—For Cold Storage Boxes, Water Cooling, &c., &c., for the New HOTEL POWHATAN, was supplied by the BAKER ICE MACHINE CO.

Of Omaha, Nebr. Manufacturers of Ice Making and Refrigerating Machinery, Double-Pipe Ammonia Condensers, Brine Coolers, and Fittings.

The telephone equipment at the Powhatan has been supplied and installed by The Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co.

It consists of a private branch exchange, with one hundred datty stations, providing complete intercommunication as it as outgoing local and long - distance service. Private branch exchange service is especially adapted to the use of large hotels and apartment houses. It combines high efficiency with low cost.

CALL MAIN 9000 FOR RATES

The Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co.